Five Graduates Are Ordained

Five SMC Alumni were ordained to the Gospel ministry at the Georgia-Cumberland and Florida campmeetings. They are Roy Caughron, John M. Robbins, Ernest A. Stevens, Lorenzo Dudley Nichols and John Lewis Marshall.

Roy Caughron, '65, after graduating from SMC was associate pastor of the Beverly Road-Duluth district. Early in 1966 he was pastor of the newly-formed Duluth-Athens district and following his ordination he became pastor of the Macon church. He is married to Marilyn Richards and they have one daughter, Deborah Denise, age 3.

John M. Robbins, '63, spent a year at Andrews University doing graduate work. In September of '64, John and his wife, Mary, went to the Thomas-ton-Griffin District where they have served to the present time. They have three children, Linda, 10, Sandra, 9, and John Jr., 5.

Ernest Stevens, 63, and his wife, Helen, are both from the state of Maine. They have three children, Bonnie Jean, 16, Larry, 14, and Randal, 6. Ernest studied at Andrews the year following his graduation from SMC. He has been pastor of the Cedar-town-Rome District ever since.

L. Dudley Nichols, '63, is pastor of the Cocoa-Titusville District. After attending Andrews University for one year he went to the Florida Conference as a ministerial intern and has worked in Tampa and Jacksonville besides his present district.

John L. Marshall, '61, is a native of Florida, having been born in West Palm Beach. After graduate work at Andrews he went back to Florida as an intern. Jack has worked in Miami, Tampa, Sanford, DeLand, and the Dade City-Zephyrhills district which he is presently serving as pastor.

Alumni Gifts Now Total $13,707

The alumni will be glad to know that they have either given or pledged $13,707 to the library fund.

Since Talge Hall is now down, and the land is being cleared, it will not be long before construction will start on the new library. A total of almost $100,000 cash from all sources has now been given to the library fund, and it is anticipated that the College will reach its individual goal of $75,000 sometime during the current academic year.

Those of the alumni who have given to the fund since the last listing are as follows:

T. M. Ashlock, '50
Wm. T. Buchanan, D.D.S.
Hugo Christiansen, '55
Vann Cockrell, '66
William Coolidge, '64

JAMES LAMAR COOPER

Those who knew James Lamar Cooper, '23 will be sorry to learn of his death, April 29, in Harrisville, Mississippi. We regret that we do not have an obituary for him at this time.

ELDER W. B. HIGGINS

Elder W. B. Higgins was born May 14, 1899 in Brentwood, N. H. and passed to his rest May 19, 1968 at a Chattanooga hospital. He graduated from EMC and received an M.A. degree from Maryland University.

He entered the service of his Master in 1923 as dean of men and teacher at Union Springs Academy. After two years in this capacity, he was married to Ruth Garber.

The next four years they served at AUC where Brother Higgins was dean of men and teacher, and was ordained to the Gospel ministry.

In 1929 they responded to a call to Africa where he was principal of Solusi Missionary College until 1946.

Returning to the States he was again connected with AUC through 1951. Collegedale came into the life of the Higgins family when they moved here and he became a part of the Educational Department as well as principal of the academy from 1952-58. The next six years were spent at Union College as personnel manager.

When it came time to retire, the Higgins returned to Collegedale where they have since made their home. Elder Higgins served as church elder and assistant church treasurer until the time of his death.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Eric Jones of Washington, D.C., and Mrs. Doreen Danielson of Winter Park, Fla., and three brothers.

Alumni Hear Col. Keplinger

Smoot Speaks at Friday Vespers

Lt. Col. John Keplinger, '43, the speaker for both Sabbath worship services during the Alumni Homecoming, called for a re-evaluation of our feelings about our government. Realizing that governments are ordained of God and the rulers are allowed to rule by the providence of God, he said we should not compromise our denominational standards about our noncombatant status, but at the same time we should render every service we can to our country with a loyal, willing nature.

Col. Keplinger's talks at the church services were two of the activities that dominated the campus on the weekend of October 11-13.

The assembled student body and alumni heard Dr. J. Grady Smoot, dean of the graduate school, Andrews University, give the talk at Friday evening vespers.

Other activities included a special afternoon program at which members of the classes of '43 and '58, the two honor classes, were interviewed and the assembled alumni and friends heard the College Choir and the Collegiate Chorale under the direction of Mr. Don Runyan. The relaxed, in-

McMillan Cited By Army

Robert C. McMillan, '53, is shown with Col. Edwin T. O'Donnell, Commanding Officer of the Army Mobility Equipment Research Development Center, Fort Belvoir, Va., after being awarded a certificate and $100 for "Special Act and Service." He was cited for having authored a paper, "Bond Character and Metastability of Phosphoric Molecular Groups of Military Significance," which was selected by the Army for presentation at the 1968 Army Science Conference held at the U.S. Military Academy, West Point, N.Y., last June.

Bob has been associated with the R&D Center since 1956 and is presently employed in the Materials Research Support Division. The Center is responsible for research, development and engineering for round-the-clock mobility in some twenty fields of military engineering ranging from materials research to the development of water purification equipment and mine detection devices. Bob lives with his family in Alexandria, Va.

Five Alumni Men Hold Principal Posts

Jan Rushing of New England Hospital and Col. Keplinger look over Alumni program at SMC.

Col. Edwin T. O'Donnell congratulates Robert McMillan for winning an army award for a research paper.

Those Who Walked These Halls

1923

C. A. and Cora Fox Woolsey, both of '23, visitors on campus from their home in Fletcher, N.C., had this comment on their family, "We have five children, 1 girl and four boys, but our grandchildren reversed this trend, there are 8 girls and 1 boy. Two of their children are Raymond H., '51, and Ada Ruth Elder, '53.

1928

Nellie Ferree is part time elementary supervisor for the Florida Conference since her retirement and return from mission service.

1932

1937

Ivan T. Crowder is the new pastor of the Philadelphia First and Montgomery Avenue Churches in Pennsylvania. He has recently returned from Trinidad.

1938

Doris Baessler Payne is associate chairman of the four-year nursing program at SMC. She came here from Hinsdale Sanitarium and Hospital where she was director of nurses. Her husband, Lawrence, is bookkeeper in SMC accounting department.

Woodrow McKendre Wilson is a piano tuner for Burger Music Co. in Cleveland, Tenn., and also works on his own. He and his wife, the former Naomi Dalrymple, have four children: David and Darlene attend Arthur Spalding School; Kenneth is a freshman at SMC; and Carolyn is married.

Carl J. Smith is taking several college hours of classwork at SMC for teacher certification, and also working for Buildings and Grounds. Susie teaches in Cohutta, Ga. Their daughter, Sidonia, is a senior in Collegedale Academy, and son, Carl Elwin, is a senior at SMC.

1950

Marlene Avery Rilea is a housewife while husband, Wilbur is a senior elementary education major at SMC.

Carol L. Prather received a M.Ed. degree from the University of Georgia in August. He is visiting teacher in Dade county Georgia and lives on Sand Mountain.

Robert Northrop has been in Victoria, Brazil, for the last 3 1/2 years.

He is treasurer of the Espirito Santo Conference. Bob has been traveling quite a bit recently, auditing and helping with regional meetings. They have one paved highway in their territory and are working on another one. The rest of the roads are holes, ruts and trails. They travel by train, bus, jeep, atop a truck, and on foot. To quote Bob, "But lack of means is one of the greatest trials and not the roads. Have you ever thought of running a conference of 10,000 members on $110,000 a year? I remember in the Carolina Conference, with 4,500 members, the budget was $720,000 a year back in 1964. We need a new electric mimeograph machine, new typewriters, things that seem small yet loom large to us. The work presses forward in spite of difficulties. Please remember us in your prayers."

LaVerne and Bob have four children from 4 to 13 years old. Bob says they all speak Portuguese like natives. During their furlough Bob would like to get a master's degree in business, maybe a C.P.A. and also pick up a pilot's license.

Hugo W. Christiansen and his family are in Wiesbaden, Germany. Hugo is director of the Library of Congress Field Office in Germany, which is an Order Procurement and Preliminary Cataloguing Center, shipping about 3,000 publications a month air mail to the Library of Congress on the Title 2C Law.

Lenwood D. Stockton, engineer, is also commander of Cleveland, Tenn., Composite Squadron of the Civilian Air Patrol—USAF Auxiliary, and has the rank of captain. He lives in Collegedale.

Clifton A. Keller, Jr., is teaching math at Andrews University.

T. W. Staples sends greetings to all from the Congo Union where he is union secretary-treasurer. His class was one of the two honor classes at Homecoming this year.

Richard C. Larsen recently paid a visit to his sister and brother-in-law, Joyce and Larry McClure, both of '57. Dick, his wife and two daughters were on their way to Trinidad where he will be on the staff of the Port-of-Spain Community Hospital. Dick has just completed a three-year residency in internal medicine at Loma Linda University Hospital.

Donald E. Hall spent 9 weeks at the University of Maryland attending a summer program of Research Participation for College Teachers sponsored by the National Science Foundation, working on problems of cosmic rays and plasma astrophysics. Don came through Collegedale on his way back to Walla Walla College.

KEPLINGER SPEAKS

formal attitude of the Sabbath afternoon meeting and the reflections on what graduates have done since their graduation gave a reaffirmation to the feeling that the alumni have for SMC.

Lynn Sauls, retiring president, conducted the business meeting that followed the alumni supper in the tabernacle. Willard Clapp, '66, president of the Collegedale Chapter, was host for the meeting, and he and his officers, along with faculty members provided the food for the alumni guests. Wallace Blair, '53, president-elect, thanked the outgoing officers for the service they gave.

The fellowship of this buffet supper was appreciated because graduates had an opportunity to see and visit with friends they had not seen for many years. It seems likely that this type of gathering for the supper and the business meeting will set a precedent that the alumni will long enjoy.

Business at the meeting included the ratification of the new constitution.

Retiring president, Lynn Sauls, installed the new officers with Wallace Blair, '53, as president. Other officers include Glenn McColpin, '57, vice president, Doris Crandell, '65, secretary; Helen Sauls, '63, assistant secretary; Ellsworth McKee, '54, treasurer; Sylvia Crook, '68, publicity secretary.

After the buffet supper, the alumni visited the new Women's Residence Hall, named Thatcher Hall after the Thatcher family from whom much of the College property was purchased. Old timers will remember the "Yellow House" down by the railroad, which was the Thatcher plantation home. The alumni visited the lobbies and worship room of Thatcher Hall, and saw many of the rooms.

SMC Names Buildings

Jason Thatcher, Mrs. Kenneth A. Wright and Former President Kenneth A. Wright listen to Elder Walter Wright deliver Pres. Wright's response to Mr. Charles Fleming's tribute.

An assemblage of SMC's 1000 plus students in addition to faculty, the Board of Trustees, Committee of 100, and special out-of-town guests gathered Feb. 6 in the College gymnasium for a special Plaque Presentation Ceremony. This was the occasion for the official naming of three buildings in tribute to individuals especially associated with the College through its early years and during its transitional period from junior college to senior status.

The new $1,350,000 women's residence hall was named for James and Grace Thatcher whose estate became the basic college campus and their home became the original women's residence hall.

Grace Thatcher, now widowed and 94 years old, is ill and was not able to attend the ceremony. Her son Jason, also of Chattanooga, in responding to the tribute for her, said, "It is indeed an honor for the entire Thatcher family for the Board of Trustees to see fit to name this building Thatcher Hall."

The plaque for Talge Hall, (the men's new million-dollar residence) reads, "Named for John H. Talge whose generosity spurred the early growth of the College." President Schneider, in paying tribute to this man, told how Mr. Talge, owner of the Talge Mahogany Company in Indianapolis, was known for his generous gifts during the early days of the College. He donated all the furniture, flooring and bathroom fixtures for the first constructed women's dormitory and all the furnishings for the first men's residence hall. He also supplied $1,300 for laundry equipment, helped purchase a piece of land, and supplied part of the kitchen equipment, plus other donations. His interest in the growth and development of the school greatly helped in its future success.

The plaque to be mounted on SMC's new administration building reads: "Named for Kenneth A. Wright whose presidency of the College from 1943 to 1955 was marked by a dedication to Christian education; by the achievement of faculty and academic excellence; and by attainment of senior status with full accreditation for the college."

Many of the major buildings on the upper level of the campus were built during Elder Wright's term at SMC. Through an expansion of a remarkable work-study plan under his leadership, SMC lifted itself from rather modest circumstances to a multi-million dollar institution that could serve as a valuable example to scores of private colleges struggling to survive.

When Elder Wright became president of Southern Junior College (as it was known then) there were only 120 college students, three frame buildings on the hill, and one Ph.D. For twelve years Elder Wright labored for this school. During this time it became a senior college and secured accreditation on the first request.

Present for the occasion were three of the Wright's children: Mrs. June Frame, '44, of San Juan, Puerto Rico—where her husband is a corporation attorney; Elder Walter Wright, '54, of Loma Linda, Calif., Bible teacher at Loma Linda Academy; Kenneth Wright of Glendale, Calif., now a law student. Unable to be present was Elder Burton Wright, '51, missionary at Malamulo, Malawi, Africa.
